

Join us for the Historical Society of Frederick County's

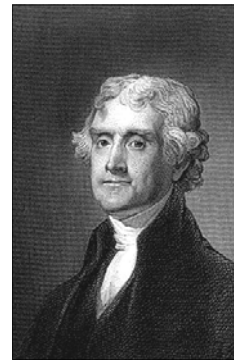

PRESIDENTS AT CHARLOTTESVILLE BUS TRIP

Friday, May 14, 2010 • 7:00 a.m. - 6:30 p.m.

The Historical Society is sponsoring a bus trip to Charlottesville, Virginia to visit Thomas Jefferson's Monticello and James Monroe's Ash Lawn-Highland. Our first stop will be at the home of James Monroe, fifth president of the United States. Participants will enjoy guided tours of the house and a chance to explore the gardens, grounds, and gift shop. We will have lunch at the historic site's outdoor pavilion, where we may be visited by Mr. Madison (as interpreted by Dennis Bigelow).

After lunch we will travel a short distance to the home of Madison's friend and neighbor Thomas Jefferson. There we will enjoy guided tours of Monticello and the opportunity to stroll through the beautifully restored gardens of the nation's third president. Participants also can experience the new Thomas Jefferson Visitor Center and Smith Education Center, featuring a number of engaging exhibits. Our trip will conclude with a visit to the new Monticello Museum Shop, an expanded shop with a comprehensive collection of Jefferson books, historic plants, and other items.

The cost is $100 for HSFC members and $110 for non-members. The fee includes deluxe motorcoach transportation, admissions, boxed lunch, and snacks on the bus. Seating is limited and available on a first-come, first-served basis. Registration confirmation will be sent at least one week prior to the trip.

The bus departs from Frederick promptly at 7:00 a.m. and will return approximately 6:30 p.m. (Our return time is dependent on traffic and other conditions; we cannot guarantee arrival time back in Frederick.) Once made, lunch selections cannot be changed. Absolutely no trip refunds after May 1. For more information, please contact Duane Doxzen at 301-663-1188x108 or ddoxzen@hsfcinfo.org.
